

Legal Issues that face Web Designers

On both the 2nd and 9th November, YorSolicitor, a York based solicitors' practice that specialises in Intellectual Property, Commercial Law and IT Law, will be running a seminar for Web Designers that will provide answers to complicated legal issues surrounding the inspiration, design, creation and implementation of websites and corporate brands. Subjects covered will include:

- ✓ Ownership issues – (such as software, design & layout and images)
- ✓ Corporate branding
- ✓ E-commerce
- ✓ Who owns what?
- ✓ What intellectual property are you creating?
- ✓ Domain names
- ✓ Data protection and Privacy
- ✓ Terms and Conditions
- ✓ Overview of Laws

The seminar will be run by Dr. Eileen McMorrow, Principal Solicitor of YorSolicitor who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in aspects of I.P, Commercial and IT Law that affect web designers on a day-to-day basis. It will run for 2 hours from 12.30 to 2.30. A buffet will be provided also. After the seminar, attendees will have a greater understanding of the complex laws that can often be overwhelming and confusing. Through gaining this insight, those who attend will learn how best to protect their assets so that their creativity is rewarded through a healthy profit. Places on the course are strictly limited so we would encourage people to book ahead to secure a place.

Cost: £15.00 (this includes drink and food)

If interested please reply either by E-mail to ta@yorsolicitor.co.uk, by phone on 01904 449933 or, alternatively, through our LinkedIn profile at <http://uk.linkedin.com/in/eileenmcmorrow>.

On top of this, we will put together a packaged offer of necessary contracts for web designers, which can be taken up by attendees at a very cost-effective price!

We look forward to hearing from you,

Dr. Eileen McMorrow
